

AOBBA

The Association of
Brass Band Adjudicators

I would like to thank all our members and the Executive Committee for their continued support during my tenure as PRO. As you know I am standing down this year to give others an opportunity to contribute to the organisation and to keep AoBBA as pro-active as ever.

We have had consistently good PR over the years as our initiatives have made us into a highly professional organisation and as a result the role of PRO in fending off complaints and complainants has been drastically reduced. However, we do need to keep our association in the forefront of the band movement and for that reason I wish the new incumbent well whoever succeeds me.
